Dear members of fellow organizations,

Invitation to the Seminar “Learning From Major Accidents” by Prof. Andrew Hopkins

Reserve your time on 26th November 2009, at 2:00pm to 6:00pm at Renaissance Kowloon Hotel, Four Seasons Ballroom, Tsimshatsui, Kowloon to attend a very special event organized for you.

We have the honor to have our distinguish guest speaker, an international renowned safety expert, Prof. Andrew Hopkins to share with us his extensive research & knowledge on the major incidents occurred in recent years worldwide. We would certainly learn a lot from these accidents.

Prof. Hopkins is not an unfamiliar person to us as most of the student(s) taking Master Degree in Safety Management should have read his book “Making Safety Work” and found his book interesting to read and the principle(s) would really work.

This is a golden opportunity to meet and discuss with Professor Hopkins locally in HK without paying tens of thousand dollars to meet him in an international conference overseas.

As a member of the supporting organization you will receive a favorable discounted offer HK$450 (Non member price HK$500). So grab this chance and register now as seats are open to the public and very limited. In order to reserve your seats please send in your reply slip together with the payment or deposit slip to the secretariat at your soonest. On-line registration is available via http://www.hkosh.org.hk/public_enrolment/ on or before 16th November 2009. Successful members will be notified. For enquiries, please contact Ms. Stella Wong at 23329210.

Looking forward to seeing you in the Seminar on 26 November 2009.

Daron LEUNG, Vice President
